

LEARNING OUTCOMES AND GRADUATE ATTRIBUTES

Learning outcomes:

1. Application of knowledge and skills in day-to-day practice
2. Application of principles of ethics
3. Acquire adequate knowledge to evaluate the scientific literature and information to decide the treatment
4. Acquire adequate knowledge to analyze the outcome treatment
5. Self-assessment and willingness to update the knowledge and skills
6. Involvement in simple research projects
7. Refer patients for consultation and specialized treatment
8. Acquire knowledge about basic study of forensic odontology and geriatric dental problems
9. Adequate knowledge to maintain all records
10. Minimum computer proficiency to enhance knowledge and skills

General Skills:

A graduate should be able to demonstrate following skills necessary for practice of dentistry.

1. Ability to diagnose and manage various common dental problems encountered in general dental practice keeping in mind the expectations and the right of society to receive the best treatment available wherever possible
2. Acquire skill to prevent and manage complications if encountered while carrying out various surgical and other dental procedures
3. Possess skill to carry out certain investigative procedures and ability to interpret laboratory findings
4. Promote oral health and help prevent oral diseases wherever possible
5. Competency in the control of pain and anxiety among the patients during dental treatment

Graduate Attributes:

A graduate should develop during the training period the following attitudes.

1. Willingness to apply the current knowledge of dentistry in the best interest of the patients and the community
2. Maintain a high standard of professional ethics and conduct and apply these in all aspects of professional life
3. Seek to improve awareness and provide possible solutions for oral health problems and needs throughout the community
4. Willingness to participate in the CDE Programs to update the knowledge and professional skill from time to time
5. To help and participate in the implementation of the national oral health policy